

Azumah appoints two new directors with extensive mining and project finance backgrounds

- Mr Geoff Jones steps down due to executive and other business commitments
- Banking and project financier, Ms Debra Bakker, and mining consultant and private equity adviser, Mr Linton Putland, appointed
- New appointments consistent with progress towards development and financing decision in 2019 for Wa Gold Project, Ghana

West African gold explorer and developer Azumah Resources (ASX: AZM) (“Azumah” or “the Company”) advises that Geoff Jones has informed the Company that due to executive and other business commitments he is stepping down from the Azumah Board.

Azumah Non-Executive Chairman Michael Atkins said: “Managing Director Stephen Stone and myself wish to pay a very special tribute to Geoff Jones for his considerable and constructive contribution to the Company this past nine years, and especially his invaluable guidance on African project development”.

“With Azumah’s Wa Gold Project in Ghana accelerating towards a development and financing decision in 2019 we have opted to make two new appointments and are extremely pleased to welcome highly experienced banking and project financier, Debra Bakker, and mining consultant and private equity adviser, Linton Putland to the Azumah Board”

“We look forward to them playing critical roles in the Company’s growth and to its innovative partnership with private equity group, Ibaera Capital.

Ms Debra Bakker

Ms Bakker has more than 25 years’ experience as an international banker, deal maker and advisor to the resources industry, holding various senior positions with Commonwealth Bank of Australia, Standard Bank London Group and Barclays Capital in Sydney, London, New York, Chicago and, since 2003, Perth.
